SKYLINE OF MAIN STREET, WESTBY, SEES CHANGES

The buildings may be gone, but the memories and history will live on and on. What were once known as the Ford Garage/Chevy Garage/ 76-Building/Case Implement Dealership (whichever name you remember it by) and Crystal Bar are now reduced to rubble. Time had already reduced them to nothing but former shadows of themselves so it was inevitable.

Change and progress are not always easy and despite their sentimental value, the buildings which were both on the verge of being condemned, needed to be dealt with. In many ways this solves a big problem for the community members, the city council, and the county commissioners before the 2013 Centennial. (Continues next page)

Once truck load, after truck load of rubble is removed a leveled surface will make way for new life and progress for Main Street, Westby.

The Ford Garage was built in 1925 by Walter Olson. Through the years, the business continued under the direction of several others including: Ted Nordhagen, Arne and Olaf Haugen, and Gene and Jerry Meyer. Gene and Jerry closed up shop in 1957 and Roy Listoe opened as a 76 station for a short time and around 1960 the business shut down permanently. The building has sat pretty much idle for over half a century now. Besides being home to car and implement dealerships, the building also housed Sheridan Electric during its short hiatus in Westby and was the Civil Defense Shelter for the area during World War II. The Crystal Bar and Café era preceded the Chevy Garage and was originally built by a man by the name of Schloesser and opened as a Billiard Parlor and Confectionary. Many were involved in this venture through the years. Ted Nordhagen (given credit for changing the name to “Crystal Bar & Café”), Dave Leininger and Lloyd Kittelson, Jarl Bartnes, Lyle & Lou Johanson, and Bill Lee have been mentioned. In early years, Gladys Wirtzburger ran the café side. The bar was closed in the late nineties after ill health forced Bill Lee to give up on the venture and has been vacated since this time.

Chad and JoAnn Monson recently acquired the properties to build a diesel mechanic shop. The Ford garage property was purchased from Ron and Julie Nelson and the Crystal Bar had been turned back to the county for taxes and the Monson’s purchased the property from Sheridan County. Upon completion of clearing and preparing the site, construction will begin on a shop/store specializing in diesel mechanics and automotive parts and service. A mercantile store with also be incorporated into the business. The Monson’s are hoping to have the business up and running as soon as possible.

Danny Moore
Westby Manager

July 4th has come and gone as you read this which means we are half way through our summer, if you can call it that. We have had very pleasant summer time days this past week and I have enjoyed every single minute of them.

One thing we always have to look forward to in Westby immediately following Fourth of July is our Prairie Fest. A complete schedule appears in this paper and although it started as a scaled down version of our usual celebration, it is turning into quite a fun filled day. The original plans were to cut back and really gear up for Westby's 2013 Centennial, but as a close friend of mine says, "Why yell whoa! in a horse race?" so here we are with a full roster of events for everyone. The Centennial fundraising committee has taken on a large chunk of the activities using several of the venues as a source of revenue for the centennial. Let's support their valiant efforts!

Speaking of the centennial, another note worth mentioning is a year has already slipped by since talk began about how to celebrate our community's 100th birthday. Now with only two years remaining to plan, organize, and implement the celebration, pressure is already starting to build. We look around at the number of tasks needed to be done to bring the town and its structures and landscape up to snuff, let alone the work it takes to organize the three day event itself. Although we are undaunted by this undertaking there will undoubtedly be a lot of blood, sweat and tears shed before it is all said and done. A great group is in place and has been working diligently this past year to raise money and prepare for this moment in history. Whether near or far, all can help with the process.

Whether it be financial for the centennial itself, our ailing community center, our devastated church basement, or the new museum; or helping hands on organized work days or a weekend visit to clean the park, baseball fields, town lots; or just plain words of encouragement and thanks for the effort, all have something to contribute. One thing for sure, when the time comes it will be done and all will share in the festivities and the home town pride the blood, sweat and tears have allowed to transpire. It will be grand!

This dip was enjoyed at a recent birthday party and the contributor was Lori Drew. It is such a refreshing twist to the Mexican layer dip we are all so familiar with. The first bite takes you so by surprise and then you are hooked!

PINEAPPLE SALSA LAYER DIP

1 jar of pineapple or peach salsa (Paul Newman makes one)

2-8oz cream cheese, softened

½ cup sour cream

¼ cup mayonnaise

1 large can crushed pineapple, drained

1 envelope of Mrs. Gras vegetable soup mix

8 oz shredded mozzarella cheese

1 green pepper diced

1- 4 oz can sliced black olives, drained

Mix cream cheese, sour cream, and mayo. Stir in soup mix until well blended. Add pineapple and mix well. Spread in bottom of 9X13 cakepan.

Spread salsa over cream mixture and sprinkle with cheese, peppers and olives. Chill. Serve with corn chips. (This serves a crowd.)

Karen entertained for bridge this spring and served this delicious tart and salad. A perfect combination for any summertime day.

MARINATED ASPARAGUS & TOMATO SALAD

1 pound asparagus, trimmed and cut into 3 inch pieces
¾ pound cherry tomatoes, cut in half
¼ cup sliced shallots
1/3 cup white wine vinegar
2 tbsp honey
¼ tsp salt
¼ tsp pepper
2 tbsp olive oil
In sauce pan, cook asparagus in boiling water for 1 minute. Drain. In bowl, combine asparagus, tomatoes, and shallots. Whisk together vinegar, honey, salt & pepper. Gradually whisk in oil. Pour over vegetables, cover and chill 1 hour.

GRUYERE AND BACON TART

1 prepared pie crust
5 slices bacon
1 ½ cups heavy cream
2 lg eggs
1/8 tsp salt and pepper
¾ cup shredded Gruyere cheese (if you can't find this a good Swiss will work)
Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Fry bacon until crisp, crumble. Reserve 1 tablespoon for top. Place pie crust in tart pan with removable bottom. Whisk together cream, eggs, S&P. Sprinkle cheese and bacon over bottom of crust. Pour cream mixture over. Bake 25 minutes or until golden brown and filling is puffed. Sprinkle with remaining bacon. Let stand 5 minutes. Cut and serve.

BABY SHOWER

You are invited to a baby shower for Kala (Stenehjem) Rush, new mother to be, to be held at the Westby Community Center on July 24th at 3:00 p.m. She and her husband Ben are expecting a baby boy in November, 2011. In the event that you need gift ideas, they are registered on line at Walmart.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Due to an unfortunate situation with the Kittelson's, we will no longer be purchasing the hardware store. Instead, we will be building a new store/shop in Westby as soon as possible on Main Street at the location of the former Chevy Garage and Crystal Bar.

We would like to thank you for your business this past month and hope to have your continued support as a customer at Westby Mercantile, LLC, in our new location.

We are open to any suggestions for the new store in the line of merchandise and any other ideas you may have to improve our service to the Westby community.

We look forward to visiting with each of you at our stand during Prairie Fest on July 9th.

Sincerely,
Chad and JoAnn Monson

Sunday Service - Jandy Jorgenson

No report

Jandy reported that the Centennial organization does not qualify for the Travel MT grant, however the museum does.

Val Moore reported that the Star Grant will be open for applications in November, and the application will be looked at this fall.

Val reported that the Fortuna Air Base memorial will need to be looked into and a contact person pursued. Val will go onsite and check with a few interested persons and discuss the project with Jim Weiler.

New Business:

A discussion was held regarding the cleanup of the community center. Teresa and Karen will try to get a date organized and contact people to help with the clean up.

Gene Kavon and Marlene Anderson discussed how the left over funds from the Centennial will be used, and stated that there needs to be a cause decided upon before the Centennial celebration. Some ideas were: park improvement, community center improvement, and sidewalk benches. This will be tabled for ideas and a decision at a later date.

The next meeting is scheduled for Monday, September 26th at 7:00 p.m. at the Community Center.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:20 p.m.

The Whistling Season

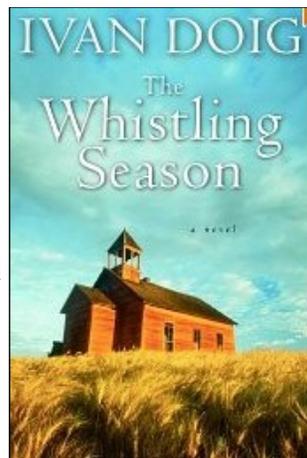

Author: Ivan Doig

Hostess: Eileen Overgaard

“Can’t Cook But Doesn’t Bite”, an ad for a housekeeper in a Minneapolis, Minnesota newspaper, catches the eye of recently widowed Oliver Milliron. In the fall of 1909 Oliver has his hands full; three young boys to care for, a Montana homestead at Marias Coulee, and a job at The Big Ditch. He answers the ad offering the services of an “A-1 housekeeper, sound morals, exceptional disposition“. Enter the non-cooking, ever-whistling widow, Rose Llewellyn and her font-of-knowledge brother, Morris Morgan.

This novel is told through the eyes of the academically gifted thirteen year old Paul Milliron, the eldest of the Milliron children, and also through the eyes of the adult Paul, who in 1957 is the Montana Superintendent of Public Instruction who must decide the fate of the one room schools that dot the prairie landscape. Schools like the very one where he and his younger brothers, Damon and Toby, received a fine education.

We are treated to an array of antics involving the three Milliron boys, their peers and classmates in the one-room school at Marias Coulee. Here is where Doig’s colorful and descriptive prose brings the many characters and their antics to life for the reader. When the schoolmarm runs off with an itinerant preacher, the scholarly Morris (Morrie) is pressed into service. He proves up to the task - beyond everyone’s expectations - even giving Latin lessons to Paul, the exceptional student, after school each day. Hailey’s Comet is due to arrive come spring, a once-in-a-lifetime event that Morrie and the schoolchildren gear up for in earnest.

Meanwhile, Rose has the Miliron house in tip top shape, whistling all the while she works (she still doesn’t cook). Determined to make a new life for herself following the death of her husband, she purchases a neighboring homestead in spite of objections from brother Morrie. Rose and Paul form a bond during their early morning gathering in the kitchen over hot chocolate and conversation. Rose is forming a bond with another of the Milliron males - you guessed it - Oliver, of course. Here is where the novel takes a surprising turn when Paul puts two and two together and discovers something in the past: Rose may not be so rosy and Morrie may not be so moral after all!

Author Doig is a native Montanan who now resides in Seattle. He graduated from Valier High School and has published two memoirs, This House of Sky and Heart Earth. His works of fiction now total around ten novels and most are set in the Montana country of his youth, mixing personal memory and regional history. Ivan Doig has been hailed as the new dean of western literature and we are anxious to read more of his work. The Whistling Season is an affectionate, heartwarming tale that celebrates a vanished way of life and laments its passing. Do read this fine Montana author.

HELSETH

Earl Selvin Halseth was born on February 24, 1930 in Westby, MT, to Selma and Edwin Helseth. He started playing the saxophone when he was 5 years old and his father had to build a stand so he could hold the sax. As a youngster growing up he worked for many of the local farmers for just a few dollars a day but thought he was rich. He also played with local bands during his high school days.

Earl graduated high school in a class of 20 and he was always amazed that 2 of the 20 ended up residing in Colorado Springs.

Earl joined the Air Force in 1949 and spent 30 years enjoying all his assignments and tours, going all over the world. He always felt blessed with his military service; he received many citations and accommodations including the Meritorious Service Medal with one Oak Leaf Cluster, Good Conduct Accommodation Medal with five oak leaf clusters and the Air Force Achievement Medal.

On August 31, 1979 he retired with the rank of Chief Master Sergeant which is achieved by only 1% of the total enlisted corp.

He is preceded in death by his parents, three sisters, Bernice Henderson, Shirley Moore and Sheila Moss.

He is survived by his dear wife, Cita, two sisters, DeLoris Bourassa and Janice Saulmon, and many nieces and nephews.

Anyone wishing to make a contribution honoring Earl, please make them to the American Heart Association.

Visitation was held at Black Forest Lutheran Church, 12455 Black Forest Road, with a funeral service following.

A Graveside service was held June 29, 2011 at Fort Logan National Cemetery, Denver, Staging Area "B".

This article is the completion of the Centennial column on Ed and Dorothy Fransen. Dorothy's story ran in the June 20th edition of The Westby Border News.

EDWIN FRANSEN

Edwin's father, Oscar, born in 1881, and his brother, Sanford, emigrated from Sweden in 1908, first to New York, then Minnesota, and finally on to Montana because they heard they could obtain their own farms by homesteading there. Their other brother, Swen, followed them to Montana in 1913. For reasons Edwin does not understand, Oscar and Sanford changed their surname to Fransen, while Swen kept the family name of Soderquist. Sanford settled in the Blue Trail area, Swen in the Comertown area, and Oscar 7 miles south of Comer town. Edwin's mother, Anne Jensen, was born in Kenyon, Minnesota in 1880. In 1912, she Traveled to Plentywood, Montana to visit her sisters, Helen and Christine. She filed for her own homestead on land north of Westby, west of Bazil Anderson's farm, but later sold it and moved to Plentywood, where she worked at a hotel and cafe. It was at the cafe where she met Oscar. They were married in 1916 in Westby and made their life together on Oscar's farm.

He was a good student and was able to finish 8 grades in 7 years. Unfortunately, he did not go on to high school because of his responsibilities on the farm. His siblings did continue their educations and did not share the responsibility for the farm. Edwin says he never regretted having to work so hard as he enjoyed all aspects of farming.

EDWIN FRANSEN

They had four children: Esther (Bjornson) born in 1917; Edith (Haarstad) born in 1919; Edwin born in 1920; and, John born in 1923. Oscar and Anne donated 2 acres of their land so that St. John's Lutheran Church and cemetery could be established. Before this, parishioners met in each other's homes or at one of the nearby country schools. Oscar became ill in the early 1920's, then suffered a broken back when he was thrown from a mower by a runaway horse. He never fully recovered and his brother, Swen, helped farm for him until Edwin was old enough to take over.

Edwin remembers working on the family farm from an early age. By the age of 12, he could do most anything required to run the farm from taking care of the cattle to raising and harvesting wheat; and, at age 15, he took over operations on the farm completely. He did attend the Coolidge School, about 1 mile from home with his siblings. Also, as the eldest son, he knew it was his role to run the farm while his siblings went to school.

Edwin and Dorothy first met when he was 10 years old and she was 5 at a farm auction, where she contends he followed her the entire time they were there; he doesn't seem to refute that. They did not see each other again until Dorothy was attending Westby High School, when they met in the cafe. Apparently, at that time, she approved of his attention, as they started seeing each other and subsequently were married in June 1944, shortly after her high school graduation. They were married at her family's farm, then settled on his family's farm with his parents. Two of their children were born in the home Oscar and Annie built: Dennis born in 1945, and James born in 1946. Edwin's mother, Anne, continued to care for Oscar until she became ill herself. Oscar was then moved to the Good Samaritan Home in Ambrose, North Dakota. Anne stayed with Edwin and Dorothy until 1952, when she moved in with her daughter, Esther Bjornsen and her family in Plentywood. Both of Edwin's parents are buried at St. John's cemetery.

Edwin had a house, previously owned by Henry Lee, moved from the Comertown hills to its current location just East of his parents' home. Dorothy was so pleased that Edwin had the house ready to move in the day she brought their daughter, Debra, home from the hospital when she was born in 1947. She said it was so nice to have a home of their own to raise their family in. Dorothy indicated that this house is over 100 years old. Remnants of the home Oscar and Anne built are still visible on the property. Edwin and Dorothy bought and farmed Sanford's homestead in Blue Trail also. In the early 1950's, the new Highway 5 was built right through their property. Edwin and Dorothy continued to live and farm on the homeplace until their retirement from farming and subsequent move to their current home in Plentywood.

EDWIN FRANSEN

Edwin and Dorothy's three children all attended Coolidge School and graduated from Westby High School. Dennis, the eldest, born in 1945, is married to Cheryl (Joyes), and they have three sons: Shawn, who is single; Chad and his wife, Lynette, have three children: Halle, Lucas, and Zachary; and, Justin and his wife, Francine, have two children: Alyssa and Kaylee. The second child, James, born in 1946, is currently married to Jan, and has two children from a previous marriage: daughter, Katie, who has a son, Sequoia; and son, James Jr., who is married to wife, Erica, but they have no children. Jan has a son who lived for a time with her and James. The last child born to Edwin and Dorothy, Debra, born in 1947, was married to Charles Goodheart until his death about two years ago; they had one daughter, Stephanie, who is married to husband, Adam, and they have two sons – Ethan and Preston; Charles also had a son and daughter from his previous marriage who lived with him and Debra for a while.

Edwin and Dorothy have many fond memories of their long life together...and no regrets. They have been married 67 years. How many couples can boast of that?

I have to say that I thoroughly enjoyed talking with them; and left knowing so much more about them and their lives, and having my own life enriched. The moral of this story is: we need to take the time to get to know the people around us, so we can learn about the rich and varied characteristics of their personalities and the events that helped shape them. We can learn so much from them, which we can then integrate into our own attitudes and perceptions. Thank you, Edwin and Dorothy for taking the time to tell me about your life experiences and letting others know about them also.

WESTBY GUN CLUB MAKES PROGRESS

Things are coming together for the Westby Gun Club and all are in high hopes by summer's end the range will be up and running.

On June 4th a group of volunteers worked diligently at the home of Westby Gun Club and made significant progress on the exterior of the clubhouse. The patio on the north side of the clubhouse is complete. The wiring from the REA pole to the building is also in. The interior of the clubhouse will be sheet rocked and insulated as funds become available to purchase the materials. The traphouse, which houses the trap thrower, will be next on the list of buildings completed also as funds are available for the remainder of the materials.

A culvert was installed in the access road to deal with the rising water on the north side of the road. This has alleviated the water problem and greatly improved the condition of the road.

A total of $3100.00 is needed to purchase the remainder of the materials needed to complete the project. With the help of Hi-Line sports, The Westby Gun Club is sponsoring a raffle for a Thompson Center Venture, Bolt Action 22-250. Tickets will go on sale July 9th during Prairie Fest and will continue until the drawing October 8th, 2011. Tickets are $10.00 for one or three for $25.00. Following Prairie Fest, tickets will be available from gun club members or at local businesses.

NELSON EARNS THIRD BRONZE STAR

As we approach our Independence Day holiday our community and all can be very proud of one of their own and his dedication to our country.

Chief Warrant Officer Two (CW2) Lee M. Nelson was awarded the Bronze Star Medal with 2nd Oak Leaf Cluster for combat operations in Iraq during Operation Iraqi Freedom VII. CW2 Nelson's actions led to the capture of several insurgents to include two high level operatives. This was CW2 Nelson's fifth combat tour in Iraq while assigned to 10th Special Forces Group (Airborne) at Fort Carson, Colorado. CW2 Nelson was also awarded the Joint Service Achievement Medal and the Valorous Unit Citation upon return from his fourth combat tour in Iraq. Since his return from Iraq, CW2 Nelson was also awarded the Australian Airborne Wings during a joint airborne operation. CW2 Nelson currently resides in Colorado Springs with his wife Mary, and three children, William, Justin, and Keeley. He is the son of Marvin Nelson of Westby and Cecilia Raam currently of Scobey.

Sherman Ekness Family Reunion

The Sherman Ekness Family gathered at Fairmont Hot Springs for a reunion the week of June 23, 2011. Those attending were:

Sherman's oldest son Paul and wife Heather
Jim and wife Maxine
Steve and wife Suzi and their children, Jesse and Genny and Grandson Remington, Natalia and her friend Shea and Thayne
Wes and his wife Cathy and their children, Adam and Granddaughter Aryanna, Amanda, and Amber, as well as Amber's friend Jordan
Dave and his wife Heather and their children Faith and Grace and also, Sherm's friend Lynn.

A great time was had by all by participating in such activities as: swimming and soaking in the hot tub, golfing, mini golfing, horseshoes, fishing and trips to Phillipsburg and Anaconda. After a wonderful meal at the Fairmont Hotel restaurant Paul presented a slide show of days past, including pictures of a cruise to Norway that Sherm and Lynn had just recently taken.
